

Kyoto Gardens

Jihei Ogawa is also known by the name "Ueji. Probably his greatest representative works are Murin-an, the villa of Aritomo Yamagata, Former Prime Minister in Kyoto by the seventh generation, and Heian Shrine in Kyoto. he has also created gardens for financial conglomerate families and the powers of the time. You will visit gardens such as Heian Shrine and Murin-an, guided by either Ogawa Jihei the Eleventh or the Twelfth.

Period Jan.01.2021 Dec.31.2021

Available all the year

Place Central Kyoto

Time required 2 to 3 hours (During the garden's open hours)

Our staff will also attend

Minimum number of participant 1person

Language Japanese

Minimum price 200,000 yen- / group not included Interpreter, Transportation,

You need to reserve months in advance option Lecture on how to make a Japanese garden etc.

